look soberly at passion and fight for peace as we weigh up love the outside, autonomy and complicity, poetry and politics. We will between apparent opposites; the room and the globe, the inside and to that of the earth and many in-between. We will balance ourselves will invent made for two, or the management of emerging global systems. In that, we will explore Theatre as scales, seeing from that of the hand by that of the ear and in between. We will balance scales, between apparent opposites, the room and the globe, the inside and the outside, autonomy and complicity, poetry and politics. We will...
